Travellers with the required permits may also continue to Bumla Pass, at over 15,000 ft — a dramatic, snowbound Indo-Tibet border crossing maintained by the Indian Army, reached via a scenic route through remote hamlets and high-altitude lakes. Please note that tour vehicles are not permitted beyond a certain point for Bumla Pass, P.T. Tso Lake and Madhuri Lake; guests must engage a local vehicle for this stretch, accompanied by our driver, and access to Bumla Pass is granted only with permission from the Deputy Commissioner of Tawang and the Indian Army.
