DAY-BY-DAY ITINERARY

Detailed Itinerary

01

Day 1 – Arrival – Cochin to Munnar

Pickup from Cochin Airport / Railway Station and transfer to Munnar (140 km / 4 hrs), the lovely hill station filled with tea plantations and misty mountains. The drive is very scenic, crossing narrow hair-pin roads with beautiful valleys, tea gardens and small waterfalls along the way, including the Vallara & Cheeyappara Waterfalls and the Pothanmedu view point. Check in to hotel. Overnight stay at Munnar.

Day 2 – Munnar Sightseeing

After breakfast, visit tea and spice plantations on the way, along with view points en route. Explore Mattupetty Dam, Echo Point and Kundala Lake, and Rajamalai – home to Eravikulam National Park, where the endangered Nilgiri Tahr can be spotted – along with the Tea Museum tracing the history of tea-making in the region. Rest of the day free for your own activities. Overnight at hotel in Munnar.

Day 3 – Munnar to Thekkady

After breakfast, proceed to Thekkady (110 km / 3 hrs), set in the green hills of spice plantations and home to the Periyar Wildlife Sanctuary – a reserve for wild elephants, bears, bison, deer, boar and the great Indian tiger. Arrive at the plantation retreat early in the afternoon, with time for some spice shopping if you wish. Overnight stay at hotel.

Day 4 – Thekkady to Alleppey Houseboat

After breakfast, check out and drive to Alleppey through tea gardens and rubber plantations. Check in to a private houseboat and spend the day experiencing full backwater life, cruising the canals and village areas of the Vembanad backwaters. Breakfast, lunch, evening tea and dinner are served on board – authentic Kerala cuisine. Overnight stay on the houseboat.
